

5. How to Advocate for Palestine in the United States

Designed mainly for those interested in being active in Palestinian liberation but may not be sure how or where to get started, this interactive workshop provides examples of ways in which prominent figures have used their passions and fields of expertise to support the Palestinian cause. Participants will also have time to reflect and discuss steps they can take in their fields to support Palestine.

Full workshop: 1.5 to 2 hours