

11. Apartheid in Palestine

Following the Human Rights Watch's extensive report that named Israeli occupation and aggression as apartheid, there has been a greater increase in understanding what apartheid really means and looks like, and how it applies to Palestine. This workshop will help answer these questions and contextualize apartheid as a historical and present day event.

Full workshop: 1.5 hours